
Professional Experience

I bring significant and sustained experience providing consulting to executives in many industry sectors. I partner with leaders to implement sound initiatives that positively impact a range of business issues. I deliver advice and counsel focused on reaching the organization's most positive, powerful potential. Areas of expertise follow:

- Strategy Formulation, Implementation and Evaluation
- Human Capital Utilization, Succession Planning, Workforce Best Practices
- Executive & Leadership Development
- Organizational Effectiveness, Organizational Development, Organizational Change & Organizational Culture

I am instrumental in developing and implementing organizational change initiatives. I devise programmatic interventions to change corporate culture while enhancing performance and productivity. I help clients develop and refine the competencies required to meet current and anticipated business demands, with particular emphasis on strategically improving stakeholder relations.

My consulting work spans strategic planning facilitation, leadership and management development, succession and pipeline planning, and organizational climate assessment using focus groups, surveys, and mixed-method measurement strategies. I extend this work through the SmikleSpeaks podcast and YouTube channel, reaching leaders and learners in 24 countries.

Civic Engagement

I am actively engaged in my community. I provide ad hoc resource development to organizations serving the poor and underserved, and coordinate national food drives feeding low-income senior citizens through Food on the 15th. Through Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., I participate in activities advancing scholarship, social justice, poverty amelioration, and economic empowerment. I bring in-depth public policy experience from four years as a lobbyist for the League of Women Voters, having served among a group of twenty lobbyists presenting the League's nonpartisan positions to elected officials in the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives. Through the Executive Alliance, a selective membership organization accelerating the success of accomplished women, I have mentored mid-career women preparing for advancement. I also volunteer with the Day Resource Center, serving the chronically homeless in Howard County, Maryland.
